We Have Questions: How Can We Best Live a Fulfilling Life?

. . . . . . .

Speaker: Joe Pittenger is a humanist chaplain, non-profit program director, and life and career coach based in Toledo, Ohio. He is dedicated to guiding individuals towards their fullest potential by encouraging compassionate, loving action. He earned a Master's of Practical Theology and Bachelor's of Sociology from Mount Vernon Nazarene University, certifications in life and career coaching from Transformation Academy, a "Science of Well Being" certification from Yale University, and a chaplain endorsement from The Humanist Society.

Musician: Josh Rose, teacher and song craftsman, grew up in the northern woodlands and fine-tuned his songwriting in the borderlands. He has spent the past ten years touring the Midwest, teaching, writing, and creating a rich body of work. He is the type of writer who labors over every word and wants his song to be injected into the listener's permanent being.

Moment of Silence

Reading/Teaching: Joe Pittenger

"The question of love is one that cannot be evaded. Whether or not you claim to be interested in it, from the moment you are alive you are bound to be concerned with love because love is not just something that happens to you: It is a certain special way of being alive. Love is in fact an intensification of life, a completeness, a fullness, a wholeness of life."

Thanks for Stepping in!

Our guest teacher Jack Ridl couldn't make it last Sunday, but Beth Buelow stepped in with another of her excellent teachings. Beth was scheduled to do the meditation, so Leslie Newman took Beth's place with her "I am C3" story. Valerie Engeltjes had a little snowshoe injury and couldn't be there as Gathering Host, so Nelleke Knarr filled that role. Thank you, C3 women, for being so willing to serve on short notice!

Canceling the Gathering

If a decision is made to cancel any future Gathering, it will be shared on C3's Facebook page, Instagram, by email, and on television stations Fox 17 and WZZM. Let's hope such an occasion doesn't happen anytime soon!

2024 Board of Trustees

The C3 Board of Trustees for 2024 met for the first time on January 10, and the new executive committee was elected that evening. Here are our new C3 Officers: Teresa Colbry, Chair; Tod Wyn, Vice-Chair; Beth Buelow, Secretary; Andy Cawthon, Treasurer. See the listing of all Board members on the front of the bulletin.

Your Feedback on the Gathering

The Sunday Gathering Team recently began developing a larger pool of guest teachers. Thanks to many suggestions, we're inviting some of them to teach in the next couple of months, so you'll be seeing a lot of new faces. We'd love your feedback on these guest teachers—as well as the musician(s) and the overall Gathering experience. Please either talk to a member of the Sunday Gathering Team or take a few minutes to fill out the forms that are located at the back of the room, along with pens, and boxes in which you can put your feedback. You can be anonymous or sign your name. Thanks for your help! Sunday Gathering Team: Leslie Newman, Beth Buelow, Valerie Engeltjes, Marianne Fischer, Chrys Moelter-Gray, Jean Regester, Chuck Tawney, Rod Van Abbema, Cindy Van Ittersum, and Ellie Williams
